

Primary Aged Volleyball Competition

Active, fun volleyball sessions for primary school students with qualified game referees and training coaches

What is it?

SERVA is running a week competition combined with training sessions to ensure participants continue to learn and are have the fun of playing games.

TEAMS:

Teams can be male, female or mixed.

We offer teams in 4 categories - (3/4 boys/mixed and girls and 5/6 boys/mixed and girls)

Teams can be school based or friendship based.

There will be finals played in the competition.

WHEN:

Trainings will commence at the start term 1, Wednesday nights. Training sessions of 30min combined with 30min modified games will be 4:30pm, 5:45pm.

Competition will start early term 2

WHERE:

Chandler Park Primary School, 5-19 Cochrane Avenue, Keysborough.

Games will be played on two courts whilst training commences on the third court.

SUPERVISION:

The competition will be managed by SERVA. A co-ordinator will be running each session. Qualified SERVA staff will run the training sessions, qualified Referees will umpire all games. We do expect that an adult supervisor will be present with each team at all times.

PARENTS:

Parents are encouraged to watch games from the ends of courts.

COMPETITION RULES:

- ✓ Teams will have 6 – 7 players.
- ✓ Teams have a minimum of 4 players, maximum 6 on the court at a time. Players can rotate on.
- ✓ The rules will be the same as indoor mini volleyball. These will be sent to teams before the competition starts.
